

Contents

About the Author	vii
Introduction	ix
CHAPTER 1
The Law Firm	1
<hr/>
The Firm As a Business	1
Choosing a Firm	4
CHAPTER 2
Be Well-Informed	7
<hr/>
Firm Operations, Policies, and Procedures	8
Learn the Ground Rules	9
Criteria for Partnership	13
Other Issues	14
How to Ask	15
CHAPTER 3
Keep Learning	17
<hr/>
The Law	18
Your Clients	19
Your Community	20

The Profession	20
Yourself	22

CHAPTER 4

Work Hard 25

Think Like an Owner	26
Budget Your Time	27
Organize Your Time	29
Saying “No”	29
Compare Actual Hours with Budgeted Hours	29
Keep Accurate Time Records	30
Be Flexible	31
Outside Activities	32

CHAPTER 5

Produce a Superior Work Product 33

Your Work Product	34
Your Appearance	35
Your Personal Business Habits	35
Your Schedule	36
Your Workplace	38
Your Personal Life	38

CHAPTER 6

Be Ethical 41

Keeping Your Mouth Shut	42
Who’s Your Client?	43
Conflicts	44
Talking to the Bad Guy	45
It’s Okay, the Partner Told Me to Do It!	46

CHAPTER 7

Watch Your Flanks 47

Your Coworkers	48
Distinction: The Need for Discretion	49

A Little Humility, Please	51
Build the Team	52
Personal Matters	54
E-mails	54
Suggestions for Improvements	55

CHAPTER 8

Behave Yourself 57

Drugs/Alcohol	58
Romance in the Office	59
Sex with a Client	60
Personal Problems	60
How Will It Look Writ Large?	61
Dare to Be Boring	62

CHAPTER 9

Put the Client First 63

Communication	64
Quality	70

CHAPTER 10

Get Involved 73

Bar Activities	74
Community Activities	75
You Must Perform	77
Spread the News, and Get Others Involved	77
Networking	78
Politics and Government Service	79
What Does the Firm Think?	80

CHAPTER 11

Market 83

Relationships with Existing Clients	84
Meeting and Greeting Potential Clients	86

Interactions with Existing and Potential Clients87
Learning About Marketing89
The Firm's Marketing Program89
Personalize Your Marketing Efforts90

CHAPTER 12

Relax, Relax, Relax! 93

Get a Life94
It's a Small World, After All95
A Presumption95
It May Not Happen96
Conclusion96
Index97