

Table of Contents

Introduction: Adapting to Change

- What Has Changed
- Recognizing the Need for Change
 - External Factors
 - Internal Factors
- What Changes May Be Necessary
 - Improved Client Service at a Reasonable Cost
 - Technology
 - Cost Control
 - Downsizing
 - Accountability
 - Compensation Systems
 - Competition
 - Marketing
 - What Is the Alternative?
- What Does Change Have to Do with a Book on Partnerships?

Chapter 1: Partnership Challenges

- Firm Culture
- Techniques for Creating an Institutional Culture
- Communication
 - Partners
 - Associates
 - Legal Assistants
 - Support Staff
- Techniques for Communicating Effectively
 - Strategic Goals and Firm Direction
 - Retreats
 - Partnership Meetings
 - Operational Day-to-Day Communications
 - The Managing Partner's Role in Communications
 - The Administrator's Role in Communications
 - Social Gatherings
- Accountability
- Techniques for Encouraging Accountability
 - Firm Culture
 - Personal Goal Setting
 - Evaluation
 - Peer Review
- Specialization
- Techniques for Increasing Specialization
- Partner Relationships

- Techniques for Improving Partner Relationships
- Incompatible Practice Areas
- Techniques for Improving Partner Relationships
- Techniques for Dealing with Incompatible Practice Areas
- Problem Partners
 - Productivity Problems
 - Quality Control Risks
 - Disruptive Personalities
 - Substance Abuse
 - Sexual Harassment
- Techniques for Dealing with Problem Partners
 - Productivity Problems
 - Quality Control Risks
 - Disruptive Personalities
 - Substance Abuse
 - Sexual Harassment
- Reorganizing (or Rightsizing)
- Techniques for Reorganizing
- Diversity
- Techniques for Creating a Diversified Firm
 - Consciousness Raising
 - Policies
 - Role Models and Mentors
 - Work Allocation
 - Business Development Skills
- Transitioning Clients to the Next Generation
- Techniques for Transitioning Clients
- Transitioning Leadership to the Next Generation
- Techniques for Transitioning Leadership
- Strategic Planning: The Foundation for Meeting Partnership Challenges

Chapter 2: Financial Challenges for Partnerships

- A Little about the Basics
- The Financial Health of a Law Firm
- How to Use Key Financial Indicators
 - Use of Statistics
 - Use of Surveys
- The Key Indicators
 - Revenue per Lawyer
 - Increases in Revenue per Lawyer
 - Flat or Declining Revenue per Lawyer
 - Revenue per Partner
 - Overhead Ratio
 - Expenses per Lawyer
 - Overhead per Lawyer

- Net Income per Partner
- Profitability Index
- Billable Hours
- Realization
- Aged Unbilled Fees
- Aged Accounts Receivable
- Inventory Turnover
- Client Dependency
- Debt and Capital Ratios
- The Need to Improve Profitability
- Practice Management's Effect on Profitability
- Ways to Address Key Financial Challenges
 - Revenue (Fee) Budgeting
 - Cash Flow
 - Funding: Debt and Capital
 - Too Many Partners for the Book of Business
 - Unproductive Lawyers
 - Client Pressure to Reduce Fees
 - Unprofitable Practice Areas
 - Unfunded Liabilities for Buyouts
 - High Occupancy Costs
 - Reorganization or Downsizing
- Long-Range Growth Projections: Looking to the Future
- Conclusion

Chapter 3: Protecting and Nurturing the Institution

- Partner Selection
 - Criteria for Choosing Partners
 - Associate to Partner
 - Continuous Application of the Guidelines to All Lawyers
- Partner Termination
- Departure Disincentives
- Indemnity by Withdrawing or Expelled Partners
- Easing the Economic Impact of Payment to Former Partners
- Existing and Former Partners' Liability for Partnership Debts
- Professional Liability
- Disability
- Retirement by Seniority
 - Mandatory Retirement
 - Retirement Benefits
 - Retaining a Senior's Know-How
- Conclusion

Chapter 4: Firm Governance and Management Structures

- A Benevolent Dictator or Strong Managing Partner
- A Management or Executive Committee
- Committee of the Whole
- A Managing Partner with a Practice Management Committee
- Roles and Responsibilities within the Firm
 - A Partner's Role
 - The Managing Partner's or Management Committee's Role
 - The Administrator's Role
 - The Practice Group's Role
 - The Practice Group Chairperson's Role
 - The Practice Management Committee's Role
- Common Management Problems in Small and Medium-Sized Firms

Chapter 5: Two-Tiered Partnerships

- The Rise of Two-Tiered Partnerships
- Key Differences and Nomenclature for the Two Levels
- Advantages of a Two-Tiered Partnerships
- Disadvantages of a Two-Tiered Partnerships
- Structure of a Two-Tiered Partnership
 - Junior Partners/Senior Partners
 - Equity Partners/Income Partners
 - Other Variants
 - Use of the Compensation Structure to Create Two Tiers
 - Timing
- Differences in the Rights and Responsibilities of the Two Tiers
- "Performance" Differences and Promotion Criteria
- Determining Compensation
- How it Feels to Be a "Second-Tier" Partner
- Risk of Easing Partnership Standards and Admitting Marginal Candidates
- Demoting Established Equity Partners to the Second Tier
- Usefulness of Income Tier for Lateral Hires
- Other Benefits a Two-Tiered Partnership Structure Might Provide
- Additional Liability Considerations
- When a Two-Tiered Partnership Structure Is Not Appropriate

Chapter 6: Compensation Systems for Law Firm Owners

- The Advent of Merit-Based Systems
- Traditional Formulas
- Subjective Criteria
 - Client Retention
 - Cooperativeness
 - Firm Management
 - Legal Expertise
 - Productivity

- Professional or Community Involvement
- Seniority
- Objective Criteria
 - Book of Business
 - Business Managed
 - Hours Worked
 - Personal Fees Collected
 - Realization
 - Work in Progress and Accounts Receivable
- How Managed Systems Work
- Applying Compensation Criteria
- Conclusion

Chapter 7: Leadership in a Law Firm

- What Is Leadership?
- What Is a Leader?
- Why Do Law Firms Need Leaders?
- Impediments to Putting the Right Leader in Place
- The Time Required to Be a Leader
- False Leaders and Positions of Power
- Hidden Leaders
- Basic Styles of Leadership
 - The Importance of Self-Esteem
 - Characteristics of Leaders
- Formulating an Organizational Culture
 - Creating a Vision
 - Communicating the Culture Statement and Obtaining Buy-In
 - Obtaining Commitment from Those Who Can Make It Happen
 - Building and Maintaining Cohesion
 - Organizing for Results
 - Having the Right People in Positions of Power
 - Rewarding Individual Contributions
 - Recommunicating the Culture
 - Renewing the Culture Statement
 - Enhancing the Self-Esteem of All Involved
- Commitment, Will, and Capacity to Act
- Succession Planning
- Conclusion

APPENDIX 1 Financial Reports

APPENDIX 2 Glossary of Financial Terms

APPENDIX 3 Financial Profile

APPENDIX 4 Partner Work Acceptance Guidelines

APPENDIX 5 Billing and Collection Guidelines

APPENDIX 6 Selected Publications for Strengthening a Law Firm