

Contents

About the Authors	ix
Acknowledgments.....	xiii
Introduction	xv

PART I

AFRAID OF LOSING YOUR JOB? LOST IT ALREADY?. 1

Remember That Economies Are Cyclical	3
Take Good Stock of Yourself	5
Educate Yourself in Another Area of Law Which Isn't Suffering	7
Consider a Lateral Move If Your Firm Is Shaky.....	9
Turn to Nonlegal Employment.....	11
Think About Going Global	15
Consider Becoming a Boutique or Regional Firm.....	16
Are You or Were You with a Big Firm? Think About Becoming a BigSolo	18
With a Smaller Firm and Going Solo?	24
Utilize Your Real Life Network.....	26
Get Up to Speed on Social Networking	30
Be Careful with What You Do and Say on Social Networking Sites	33
Perfect Your Elevator Speech	35

Keep Your Résumé Up to Date.	38
Preparing a Résumé	38
The First-Draft Components	40
Education	40
Employment Experience	41
Memberships, Certifications, Affiliations, and Activities. . .	42
The Visual Effect.	43
Appearance.	44
Layout	44
Organization	45
Don't Be a Slave to Geography	49
Find a Good Legal Recruiter	50
Don't Badmouth Your Former Employer.	51
Looking for a Legal Job? Use Your Safety Net. The Internet, That Is	52
Online Resources	52
Law Related Blogs (Blawgs).	58
If You're Still Employed, You Can Only Do So Much to Prove Your Value to the Firm.	61
If You Feel the Guillotine About to Drop	62
Get Unwired	63
Alcohol, Drugs, and Other Addictions: Don't Create an Additional Problem for Yourself	65
Keep Your Sense of Humor and a Positive Outlook!.	69

PART II

MANAGING AND MARKETING YOUR LAW FIRM IN A DOWN ECONOMY. 71

Recession Proof Your Firm.	73
Careful Screening of Potential Clients Is Now Critical	75
Tips on Dealing with Collection of Fees from "Slow Pay" and "No Pay" Clients	77
Questions for Staff to Ask When First Contacting Clients for Payment	83
Take a Hard Look at Staffing and Associates	85
Consider the Alternatives	85

Delivering the Bad News to Good Lawyers	88
It's Your Money: Pay Attention and Watch for Trouble Signs . .	91
Get and Keep Good Credit and Have Cash Reserves	94
Everything Is Negotiable	95
Cut Fat, Not Muscle	96
Trust, But Verify	97
Check Your Checks and Balances System.	98
Look at Your Personal Budget as Well.	100
Consider Your Bank and Whether to Change It	103
It's Time to Contemplate Alternative Billing.	104
Be Mindful of Employees Who May Know Your Finances
Are Shaky or Who Are Disgruntled	110
Consider Less Expensive Office Space	112
Keep an Eye on Morale.	113
Manage Your Public Image.	115
Take Good Care of Current Clients	116
Keep Sniffing the Air.	119
Outsource Your Financing by Accepting Credit Cards.	121
Consider Whether Your Retainers Should Be "Evergreen" . . .	123
Don't Abandon Strategic Planning.	124
Don't Stop Marketing in Bad Times, But Look at
HOW You Are Marketing	125
If Work Slows, Use Your Spare Time Productively for
Business Purposes	129
Closing Files Can Be a Marketing Opportunity.	131

PART III

DO IT BETTER, CHEAPER, FASTER WITH TECHNOLOGY:

USING TECHNOLOGY TO BOOST THE BOTTOM LINE 133

Section One: It's About "Time in a Bucket"	135
Section Two: The Time Bucket Meets the ROLTI Factor	139
Section Three: Shifting the Time Bucket: The Paperless
Versus the Paper LESS Office. What Really Works	152
Section Four: Tightwad Technology for Tough and Trying Times: 25 Tips for Buying Right, Buying "Free,"
Spending Smart.	160

Section Five: Paying for Technology in Tough and Trying Times—Enter “Smart Leasing” as an Alternative Financing Source	185
Section Six: Finding the Right “Smart Leasing” Source	187
Section Seven: Minimum Daily Technology Requirements—The Technology Every Small Practice Needs to Function	191
1. Your Computer	192
Solo/Small Firm Mobile PC System	192
2. Your Peripherals	195
Printer	195
3. Backup Systems	197
4. Scanning	197
5. Electrical Protection	198
6. Routers, Switches, Firewalls and Such	199
7. Application Software	199
8. Utility Software	210
9. Smartphone	203
10. Virtualizing Yourself Versus Adding Staff and Paid Services	203
11. Daily Dosage of Legal Tech Smarts	204
Conclusion	206
Further Resources	207
Index	209