

LAWPRO

magazine

OCTOBER 2019 VOL 18.2

INSURANCE ISSUE

Your 2020 program: Simple, clear, stable

Quick summary:

- Base premium unchanged for 2020: $2,950
- No change to transaction levies
- Clarification of circumstances in which notice must be provided
- Clarifications to definitions of “spouse” and “dishonesty” under the policy

How to renew your insurance

You need to renew your insurance for the 2020 year. It will not happen automatically.

Visit my.lawpro.ca to e-file your insurance renewal.

Connect with
LAWPRO:

Important Dates

Policy renewals available

October 1, 2019

Online insurance renewal applications for 2020 will be available beginning October 1st.

Quarterly transaction levies and forms due

October 31, 2019

Real estate and civil litigation transaction levies and forms are due for the quarter ended September 30, 2019

E-filing deadline

November 1, 2019

Renewal applications filed online on or before November 1, 2019 qualify for a $25 per lawyer e-filing discount applied to the 2020 insurance premium.

Renewal application filing deadline

November 8, 2019

Renewal applications filed after this date will be subject to a surcharge equal to 30 per cent of the base premium.

Quarterly transaction levies and forms due

January 31, 2020

Real estate and civil litigation transaction levies and forms are due for the quarter ended December 31, 2019